

Feature: Species Info Page

Scenario: The User is selecting a species

Given That the user has searched for a species

When The user selects a specific result

Then The Species Info Page will open

Scenario: The User is opening the species info page

Given That the user has selected what species to view information for

When The page loads

Then The Species Info Page will be populated with data from EoL

Scenario: The User is opening the species info page

Given That the user has selected what species to view information for

When The page loads

Then The Species Info Page will contain an image

Feature: Species Info Page - errors

Scenario: The User viewing information on a species

Given that some specific piece of data is not available for a selected species

When The the species info page is displayed

Then An error will be shown notifying the user of the lack of data in the field

Feature: Species Info Page - network unavailable

Scenario: The User is opening the species info page

Given That the user is offline and doesn't have backup data

When The the species info page is displayed

Then An error will be shown notifying the user of the lack of network